

Each spring, Law Explorers participate in the Mock Trial competition. Students compete against other local Law Explorers at the Monroe County Hall of Justice in front of an actual sitting judge. Participants must be a registered member of one of the Law Exploring programs.

Teams may also choose to participate in the National Exploring Mock Trial Competition. Test your courtroom demeanor and presentation skills against Explorers from all over the country. The 2006 competition will be held in Hawaii.